

AMIRNET PRACTICE TEST 13

Original practice simulation | Level: Medium-high

Core structure	6 sections: Sentence Completion, Reading Comprehension, Restatements
Core timing	39 minutes total (4 + 4 + 15 + 6 + 6 + 4)
Print-adapted experimental section	2 sections: Grammar in Context + Word Formation
Suggested rule	Work under time pressure and check the answer key only at the end

This is original Zoom English practice material inspired by the current AMIRNET section structure. It is not an official test of the National Institute for Testing & Evaluation (NITE/MALU), and it does not guarantee any particular score or exemption level.

- A. available
- B. accurate
- C. essential
- D. compelling

2. It became clear that regular practice for developing fluency was ____ - it was absolutely necessary.

- A. plausible
- B. relevant
- C. essential
- D. apparent

3. The study examined the ____ in the decline in local air quality rather than treating it as unimportant.

- A. discrepancy
- B. assumption
- C. priority
- D. factor

4. The new policy is intended to help managers ____ additional funds to the research program.

- A. inhibit
- B. undergo
- C. allocate
- D. withstand

SECTION 2 - Sentence Completion

4 questions | 4 minutes

5. After a lengthy discussion, the committee agreed to ____ the new safety procedures immediately.

- A. retain
- B. undergo
- C. implement
- D. diminish

6. The organization decided to ____ the growth of certain bacteria after reviewing the latest information.

- A. compensate
- B. replace
- C. inhibit
- D. derive

7. Researchers considered the proposed explanation for the unusual result ____ because it was seeming reasonable or likely to be true.

- A. coherent
- B. substantial
- C. tentative
- D. plausible

8. It became clear that clean water in the region during the drought was ____ - it was not available in sufficient quantity.

- A. significant
- B. ambiguous
- C. scarce
- D. consistent

SECTION 3 - Reading Comprehension

5 questions | 15 minutes

Microplastics in Rivers

Tiny plastic particles have been detected in rivers around the world. One important reason is that they come from several sources, including degraded packaging, synthetic fabrics, and road dust. In addition, measuring them is difficult because laboratories may use different sampling and identification methods. Researchers therefore note that research on river microplastics requires consistent measurement methods. Nevertheless, this makes comparisons among studies more complicated. The issue is not simply whether the approach has value, but under which conditions it works best. In particular, different laboratory methods can make studies hard to compare. For this reason, researchers are working toward standardized procedures so that long-term trends can be measured more reliably.

9. What is the main purpose of the passage?

- A. compare two unrelated technologies without reaching a conclusion
- B. Describe the sources of river microplastics and a challenge in studying them
- C. describe only the historical origins of microplastics in rivers
- D. argue that microplastics in rivers should be avoided in every situation

10. According to the passage, which statement is true?

- A. The passage states that no practical limitations have been identified.
- B. The main benefit described in the passage has been completely disproved.
- C. The approach described is useful only in laboratory settings.
- D. Research on river microplastics requires consistent measurement methods.

11. The word standardized is closest in meaning to:

- A. unrelated to the subject
- B. changing without any pattern
- C. Made consistent according to common rules
- D. impossible to measure

12. Which of the following can be inferred from the passage?

- A. The author believes that one simple action can solve every related problem.
- B. Different laboratory methods can make studies hard to compare.
- C. Further planning or evaluation is unnecessary once the approach is adopted.
- D. The approach described has no costs or disadvantages.

13. Which statement best reflects the author's view?

- A. The subject is useful only because it is inexpensive.
- B. The subject has already solved all of the problems discussed.
- C. The subject has potential benefits, but its success depends on how it is implemented.
- D. The subject is entirely ineffective and should be abandoned.

SECTION 4 - Restatements

3 questions | 6 minutes

14. Unless the engineers can test the structure, it will not be able to approve the design.

- A. The engineers can approve the design only if it can test the structure.
- B. The engineers can approve the design even if it does not test the structure.
- C. The engineers must approve the design before it can test the structure.
- D. Being able to test the structure is unnecessary for the engineers to approve the design.

15. It was not until the team had managed to solve the technical problem that it could enter the final stage.

- A. The team could enter the final stage without ever having to solve the technical problem.
- B. The team could enter the final stage before it managed to solve the technical problem.
- C. The need to solve the technical problem arose only after the team had already been able to enter the final stage.
- D. The team could enter the final stage only after it had managed to solve the technical problem.

16. Although the initial results were disappointing, the researchers continued the study.

- A. Because the initial results were disappointing, the opposite outcome occurred.
- B. The researchers continued the study because the initial results were disappointing.
- C. If the initial results were disappointing, the researchers continued the study would not have happened.
- D. Despite the fact that the initial results were disappointing, the researchers continued the study.

SECTION 5 - Restatements

3 questions | 6 minutes

17. Few people expected the young athlete to win the competition in such a short time.

- A. The athlete won much later than people had expected.
- B. The young athlete won the competition sooner than most people had expected.
